

SPOTLIGHT IN BRIEF

Transient's Voice stops in Lunenburg

Anderson Gallery, 160 Montague St., Lunenburg, features a new exhibit, Transient's Voice, of photographs and journals by Shima Iuchi, opening Saturday, 11 a.m. to 9 p.m., and running to June 29.

Transient's Voice is inspired by transient Orca whales that travel year-round between California and Alaska. Like human travellers, they search for places and have experiences on their journeys which make them want to return.

While travelling through Japan and Northern America, Iuchi is creating work based on her journals and memories. Memory maps, transcribed conversations, quotations and landmarks are transformed into bodies of interdisciplinary work using photography, sculpture, installation, print-making and drawing.
